

The 2020 ADCA National Dexter Expo will be in Lincoln, Nebraska. This annual event offers opportunity to see and learn about Dexter Cattle, the Dexter Cattle Community and the American Dexter Cattle Association.

The ADCA Board of Directors, ADCA Committee members, and everyone at the Lancaster Event Center have been working hard to make your experience pleasant, educational, and fun event. Educational seminars will be available that we hope will encourage you and help you grow as quality breeders of tri-purpose Dexter cattle.

Some of our breeds finest Dexters will be on display and breeders will be available to share information and ideas.

Activities include:

- ADCA annual general meeting
- Dexter FUNd Raiser Auction
- Youth activities
- Educational seminars
- Annual Youth and Adult Dexter show.

This week is a wonderful opportunity to learn about Dexter Cattle and mingle and make new friends within our Dexter community!
